LATEST CONSORTIUM NEWS

Your Solicitors Framework – Results May to September 2020

In this first 5 month period of the new Solicitors Framework the firms appointed to the Framework report that they have received over 380 commissions from Consortium member organisations.

The total spend by all Member Organisations in the same period was over £2.1 million, thus delivering savings of almost £500,000 as against otherwise prevailing fee levels.

Annual Training Event 2021

We are really hoping that we can welcome you to this year's Annual Training Event on 5th October 2021 at Aintree in person and are starting our planning for it now.

Bookings are open and in future E-Bulletins we will keep you updated on our progress.

Introducing our new Precedent Service – Now Loading Documents

We are launching our NWLC Precedent Service on the Consortium website.

Our Partner firms are contributing a range of precedents which will be available to download for free to staff from member organisations.

The precedents will be tailored for the use of member organisations and their work areas.

In the future we also plan to develop the service to include a request service.

CASES

HOUSING. Health; Immigration.

Coronavirus; Failed asylum seekers; Homelessness; Local authorities' powers and duties; Local government; Temporary accommodation.

R. (on the application of Ncube) v Brighton and Hove City Council. [2021] EWHC 578 (Admin). Queen's Bench Division (Administrative Court) (QBD (Admin)). Freedman J. March 11, 2021

Local authorities could lawfully provide accommodation to street homeless persons with no recourse to public funds during the COVID-19 pandemic by virtue of their powers and duties under the Local Government Act 1972 s.138 and the National Health Service Act 2006 s.2B.

Declaration granted

MENTAL HEALTH. Health.

Best interests; Brain damage; Care homes; Coronavirus; Persons lacking capacity; Risk; Vaccination.

V, Re. [2021] EWCOP 14. Court of Protection (CP). Hayden J. February 10, 2021

It was lawful and in the best interests a care home resident in her 70s who suffered from a form of alcohol-related brain damage to be given the COVID-19 vaccination against the wishes of her daughter. Strongly held views by well-meaning and concerned family members should be taken into account but should not prevail over or be confused with the view's of the patient, as established by the entirety of the evidence.

Application refused

PUBLIC PROCUREMENT. Contracts; Health.

Broadcasts; Contract award notices; Contracts for goods; Contracts for services; Coronavirus; Locus standi; Public interest; Recordings; Remote hearings; Transparency.

R, (on the application of Good Law Project Ltd) v Secretary of State for Health and Social Care. [2021] EWHC 346 (Admin). Queen's Bench Division (Administrative Court) (QBD (Admin)). Chamberlain J. February 18, 2021

When awarding contracts for goods and services during the COVID-19 pandemic, the Secretary of State for Health and Social Care had unlawfully failed to comply with his obligations under the Public Contracts Regulations 2015 reg.50 and with government policy which required him to publish certain tender and contract documents. The court examined the principles applying to standing to bring claims in the context of challenges to individual procurement decisions.

Application granted

SOCIAL WELFARE. Human rights.

Children's homes; Freedom to manifest one's religious belief; Judaism; Learning disabled persons; Local authorities' powers and duties; Looked-after children; Proportionality; Religious discrimination; Religious education; Respite care; Right to respect for private and family life.

A (Children) v Manchester City Council. [2021] EWHC 455 (Admin). Queen's Bench Division (Administrative Court) (QBD (Admin)). Judge Stephen Davies. March 01, 2021

A local authority had breached a child's ECHR art.9 right to manifest his religion by proposing to place him in residential respite accommodation where he would be unable to make/consume kosher food and participate in practices which were a crucial part of his faith as an orthodox Heredi Jew. The decision as to his placement was not proportionate where alternative accommodation had been found which was specifically for orthodox Jewish children, and which would enable him to practice his religion without restrictions.

Application granted in part

Number of universal credit claimants doubles since start of pandemic to 6 million. Independent, 24 February 2021 (Online edition). By May Bulman.

Government figures have revealed that the number of people claiming universal credit in the UK has doubled from 3 million in March 2020 to 6 million in January 2021 since the start of the COVID-19 pandemic, prompting fresh concerns about plans to remove the £20 uplift to the benefit in April 2021. Claimant numbers have continued to increase month-on-month, rising by 2%, or around 90,000 people, in each of the past three months.
