PLEXUS

A Clearer Legal Perspective

Plexus Law is a modern and flexible law firm with a national network of offices and a highly motivated team of litigators delivering effective solutions and outcomes for our clients. With a dedicated Public Sector Team that has rich heritage gained from many years experience working in the sector, we can assist you with legal, regulatory, strategic and commercial advice.

Central to our approach is cost containment and the minimisation of leakage. We aim to control indemnity spend and reduce life cycles. Senior practitioners will work across all classes of cases to ensure the best possible service and outcomes for our clients.

Capability Overview

Local Authorities: Plexus Law has over 30 years' experience of working with Local Authorities and an in-depth knowledge of their working methods and requirements. We cover all aspects of employers' liability and public liability litigation, including catastrophic injuries involving occupiers' liability, judicial reviews, property damage, housing disrepair, defamation, employment issues, costs negotiation, official's indemnity issues and professional negligence. Additionally, we have a specialist Sensitive Claims and Abuse Team who handle multi-party abuse, failure to educate and bullying claims. Key Contact: Andrew Steel

Emergency Services: We are acutely aware that Police and Fire Authorities operate in a high profile and sensitive sector and that along with the legal merits of any action there is also the reputation of the individual authority and public confidence issues to consider. Key Contact: Matthew Smith

Occupational Disease: Specialist lawyers are able to offer clients tailored strategies for the progression and resolution of these often complex claims. We have an extensive library of master files with liability and insurance cover information gathered over many years, which are used to ensure a consistent proactive approach to disease claims handling, both pre and post litigation. Key Contact: Philippa Bell

Motor: From injury of the utmost severity to high-volume 'low value' claims we specialise in dealing with all aspects of motor claims. We handle in excess of 70,000 motor claims per annum. Key Contact: Tim Short

Fraud: As the fraudster becomes even more sophisticated, innovative and proactive measures need to be in place to respond to the challenges this creates. We advise on all types of insurance related fraud including staged accidents, phantom passenger claims, indemnity issues, serial claimants and minor impact claims. Key Contact: Gary Petterson

Catastrophic Loss: The efficient and cost-effective handling of large and catastrophic loss claims requires a bespoke and non-commoditised approach. We have a vast depth and breadth of experience in serious and complex matters. Key Contact: Philip D'Netto
